Better Options, Better Choices, Better Off Working

Reed in Partnership

is proud to be a part of Job Services Australia

You may be eligible for tailored training courses, free travel and interview clothes, along with help with your resume and interview skills.

When you join Reed in Partnership, you join the team; that's why you're known as a Member, rather than a jobseeker or customer.

On top of this, you'll have your own Personal Adviser who can assist you with job searching and help you gain skills to find the right employment.

With our experience and your commitment, we can help you find the right job.

What can we do for you?

1 Your own Personal Adviser

With Reed in Partnership you'll get a Personal Adviser to assist you at every step in your journey into work.

2 Help with finding a good local job

Through our dedicated Recruitment Managers, we work with local employers to ensure our Members have access to good local jobs.

3 The right skills and training

We can provide training to increase your skills, moving you closer to work. Our training is industry-specific and by working with employers, we ensure our training is relevant to your job goals.

4 Financial advice and assistance

We can help you pay for your transport to an interview, fund training, or buy your interview clothes. With the right financial advice, we'll prove you can be better off working.

5 Help even after you start work

Our job doesn't finish when you start work. Our Personal Advisers provide you with continued support to ensure that you progress in your new role.
